POJ is committed to transparency in its editorial review process.

All articles are evaluated solely on their scientific merit by at least 2 external peers and one editor.

2. SUBMISSION AND REVIEW

ARTICLE SUBMISSION

- 1 Direct Submission—the main and preferred route for publication in POJ
  - The Editor will review and do the initial quality check of paper. The editor will decide whether manuscript will go to the review process or should be declined immediately.
  - Authors receive a first decision within about one week.
  - If authors did not receive anything from the editor this means that manuscript has been sent to the peer-review process.
- 2 → The review process may take 45 days.
  - The papers published online as soon as 4–5 weeks after acceptance.
  - All Submissions are subject to evaluation by the Editorial Board.

THREE-TIER REVIEW PROCESS

A POJ member along with reviewers make the final decision for every paper.

- 1 Editorial Board Member.
A full list of Editorial Board members and their disciplines is available at <http://www.pomics.com/editorial.html>
- 2 All POJ Editors are professional scientists and active researchers.
- 3 Independent Peer Reviewers—recognized subject experts.
- 4 The status of all submitted manuscript can be checked here:
